Welcome

Dear Conference Participants and Distinguished Guests;

As the president of the International Association of Social Science Research, I wish to extend a warm welcome to all conference participants. We are delighted and honored to host XV. European Conference on Social and Behavioral Sciences at Adnan Menderes University, Kusadası, Turkey. I would like to express my special thanks to Prof. Dr. Cavit Bircan, President of Adnan Menderes University and Dr. Bertan Akyol, Director of Davutlar Vocational School, hosting the conference at their university and department.

It is my great pleasure to inform you that more than 200 conference delegates from 10 countries will present more than 200 papers in three days. We received more than 300 applications and accepted around 200 papers for our conference in order to increase quality of the conference.

I would like to express my special thanks to Prof. Dr. Yücel Acer, President of Canakkale Onsekiz Mart University, that he gives support for the conference and to develop relations between two universities. Also, I would like to express my special thanks to the chairs of the organization committee and all members of the organization and review committees for their invaluable support and cooperation in organizing the conference at Adnan Menderes University. This conference cannot be possible without their support.

Since 2012, our association have organized 15 international conferences. Our conferences have been held in Istanbul, Rome, Belgrade, Saint Petesburg, Bucharest, Paris, Catania, Sofia, Odessa and in some other important cities. Our conferences have multidisciplinary structure. Because we believe that multidisciplinary studies provide a platform for scholarly and state-of-art research in all the subjects. After our conferences, we publish peer reviewed original research papers, comprehensive reviews and comment articles in all the multidisciplinary scientific reserach fields. We have published more than 30 internationally edited books. Our books have been published well-known publishers in Europe like Cambridge Scholars Publishing in England, Peter Lang Publishing in Germany and E-Bwn Publishing in Poland.

Our Association moved from Turkey to Kosova in order to represent our country abroad. We will try to improve our relations between two countries and develop cooperation between faculty members. For this reason, we will hold our next conference between May 10-12, 2018 in Prizren, Kosova.

I am wishing the best to all our guests in Kusadası, Turkey and hoping to meet you again at our next conferences, in Prizren, Kosova or Bucharest, Romania. I hope that our conference will make a contribution to share our experiences and knowledge each other.

Enjoy being in our conference, enjoy being in Davutlar Vocational School and enjoy being in Kusadası, Turkey. Thank you so much for being here.

Sincerely,
Prof.Dr. Hasan Arslan
President of IAASSR

Dear Authors,

We would like to thank for your contributions to our publications. We would like to give you some basic information about our publication journey. Please read them carefully and send us email (iassr@iassr.org) us if you have any questions:

- (1) Your abstracts will be published in our e-abstract book.
- (2) Authors should submit their manuscripts in .doc or .docx format by emailing at iassr@iassr.org. The file name for the manuscripts should have (1) corresponding author's surname and (2) Paper ID. (Example: ICBAY_1234.docx)
- (3) The publication process for our international edited books will last around 6 months.
- (4) You can submit only one full-text for publication if you have two presentations in the conference.
- (5) All of the manuscripts should be proof-read by professional editors and follow APA citation format. Our editors will reject any paper that does not have proper English proficiency or APA format.
- (6) Manuscripts must be between 8 and 10 single pages (reference list included). The text is single-spaced; uses a 12-point font with Times New Roman.

Title

The title of the study should reflect the content clearly and be comprehensive. Except for the linkers, each word should be capitalized.

Introduction

The basis of the research topic, summary related with the parts of the study, the significance of the subject in the academic literature, the importance of the study, research problem and aims should be explained in a detailed fashion in the introduction.

Method

The type, research group, data collection tools, validity and reliability, data collection techniques, data analysis, limitations and ethical committee approval (if necessary) of the research should be explained exhaustively.

Results

The results of the study should be explained with tables, diagrams, graphics or pictures in a way that supports the aim and problem of the study.

Discussion

In the light of the importance of the study, the results should be discussed referring to literature and author opinions.

Conclusion

The main ideas driven from the discussions should be explained.

Acknowledgements

Those people or institutions who were of little help in the shaping of the study should be acknowledged.

References

References should be prepared according to APA 6 – Citation Guide.

Copyright Notice

The manuscripts submitted to IASSR for publication should be original studies that were not published before or not submitted to anywhere else for publication.

Pre-review Process

In the pre-review process, the field editors evaluate the introduction and literature, method, findings, results, discussion parts of the studies in detail with respect to the publishing policies and scope of the journal as well as originality. As a result of this process, those studies that are found unacceptable are returned within four weeks the latest together with the field editor report. And the studies which are deemed appropriate are assigned to reviewers.

Assigning Reviewers

Reviewers are assigned according to the content of the studies and their subject of expertise. The field editor who reviews the study recommends two reviewers, based on their subject of expertise, from the reviewer pool of Education and Science or a new reviewer related with the subject of study addressed in the article. The recommendations are then evaluated by the editors and the studies are passed on to the reviewers who are obligated to guarantee that they will not share any document or detail about the study they review.

Reviewer Reports

The reviewer reports are based on the originality of the studies, methods, ethical considerations, consistent presentation of the findings and results and analysis of the studies with respect to literature. In the review process, reviewers are not expected to redact the study.

Editorial Board Decision

Based on the review done by the field editor and reviewers, editors report the views of the editorial board to the author(s) at the latest along with the suggestions made by the field editor and reviewers. In this process the studies that are not accepted for publication are returned without request for plagiarism detection. The final decision about the accepted studies is made based on the results of the plagiarism detection report.

How long does the Publication Review Process last?

It is anticipated that the publication review process of the studies submitted to IASSR be completed in around 6 months. However, the period during which editors or reviewers ask the author(s) to do editing and the author(s) complete the editing is not included in this time frame.

Authors

If the author(s) finds a mistake in their study which is unpublished or in early release or review process, they are obliged to cooperate with the editor of the journal during the withdrawal process. The author(s) who wants to withdraw their study which is in review process is obliged to fill in the "Article Withdrawal Form", scan it with signature(s) on it and send the form via e-mail to iassr@iassr.org. Editorial board will return to the author(s) within a week, evaluating the request for withdrawal. The studies the copyright of which is transferred to IASSR during the submission process cannot be submitted to other journals/books for review unless they are approved for withdrawal.

Publication Ethics

The publication process at IASSR is the basis of the improvement and dissemination of information objectively and respectfully. Therefore, the procedures in this process improves the quality of the studies. Peer-reviewed studies are the ones that support and materialize the scientific method. At this point, it is of utmost importance that all parties included in the publication process (authors, readers and researchers, publisher, reviewers and editors) comply with the standards of ethical considerations. IASSR expects all parties to hold the following ethical responsibilities.

Plagiarism Detection

In accordance with its publishing policies, IASSR oblige each study to be detected for plagiarism to protect the integrity of the study.

Language Editing

The language of the manuscripts submitted to IASSR must be accurate in terms of rules of grammar and scientific literature and must have a plain and clear language quality. Manuscripts should be written in fluent language and free of foreign words. If the manuscripts are edited before they are submitted for review, the process of publication gets healthy.

The editorial board may demand that the manuscripts be edited for language mistakes during the review process or after acceptance. The author(s) who has been requested to get his/her manuscript edited must do it.
